JOHN ELBERT TAYLOR, JR.) CASE NO. 06-11496
)
Debtor)

DECISION AND ORDER
CONCERNING DEBTOR'S COMPLIANCE WITH § 109(h)

At Fort Wayne, Indiana, on September 8, 2006.

As a result of the bankruptcy reforms of 2005, to be eligible for relief under Title 11 an individual must have received credit counseling from an approved agency during the 180 days prior to filing the petition, 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(1), unless the debtor requests a temporary waiver of this requirement pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(3) by filing a certification, which “is satisfactory to the court,” describing “exigent circumstances” necessitating the immediate filing of a bankruptcy petition without waiting for the completion of credit counseling, and which “states that the debtor requested credit counseling . . . but was unable to obtain [it]” within five days.¹ This certification must be filed with the petition, see, Interim Bankruptcy Rule 1007(b)(3), (c), and must state the facts demonstrating both exigent circumstances and the debtor’s efforts to obtain credit counseling “with particularity.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. Rule 9013.

The debtor in this case filed his petition on September 6, 2006. Accompanying the petition was a certificate demonstrating that the debtor completed credit counseling on March 9, 2006. This is more than 180 days prior to the date the case was filed. Therefore, based upon the present record, it seems that the debtor is not eligible for relief under Title 11. Debtor shall have fourteen (14) days to comply with § 109(h) and demonstrate his eligibility for relief under Title 11 or to show cause, in writing, why this case should not be dismissed. The failure to do so will result in the dismissal of this case without further notice or hearing.

¹Debtor may also file a motion asking the court to completely waive the requirement because they are disabled, incapacitated, or on active duty in a military combat zone. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4).

SO ORDERED.
