DECISION AND ORDER
CONCERNING DEBTOR'S COMPLIANCE WITH § 109(h)

At Fort Wayne, Indiana, on May 15, 2008

As a result of the bankruptcy reforms of 2005, to be eligible for relief under Title 11 an individual must have received credit counseling from an approved agency during the 180 days prior to filing the petition. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(1). The certificate demonstrating completion of this counseling is supposed accompany Exhibit D to the petition. See, Fed. R. Bankr. P. Rules 1007(b)(3), (c).

The petition in this case was filed on May 7, 2008. Accompanying the petition was a certificate demonstrating that credit counseling was completed on July 5, 2007. This is more than 180 days prior to the date the case was filed. Therefore, based upon the present record, it seems that the debtor is not eligible for relief under Title 11. Debtor shall have fourteen (14) days to comply with § 109(h) and demonstrate eligibility for relief under Title 11. The failure to do so will result in the dismissal of this case without further notice or hearing.

SO ORDERED.
