Debtor)

DECISION AND ORDER

At Fort Wayne, Indiana, on May 13, 2008.

The debtor in this chapter 11 case filed an application for allowance of fees and expenses of its accountant, Kline CPA Group. A creditor, VFS Leasing Co. objected to the application. That objection was not served on the entities required by the local rules of this court. See, N.D. Ind. L.B.R. B-9013-2(c). As a result, the debtor filed a motion, together with a brief in support thereof, asking the court to strike the objection. VFS did not respond to the motion to strike within the time required and it was taken under advisement on April 24, 2008. As of this date, VFS has not responded to the motion, nor has it corrected the deficiency complained of by serving its objection on those entitled to receive it. In light of the objector's failure to properly serve its objection, the debtor's motion to strike is GRANTED. The objection to the application for fees and expenses filed on behalf of the Kline CPA Group is hereby stricken.

SO ORDERED.
