ORDER REGARDING CORRESPONDENCE

On November 1, 2005, the clerk docketed as docket record entry number 8 a “Notice and Motion to Correct Clerical Errors” signed by the debtor Kissandra Fischer. This document notes that a box on the “Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case, Meeting of Creditors, & Deadlines” for the Attorney for Debtor(s) is filled in with the name of the co-debtor David Vincent Fischer, but does not also contain the name of Kissandra Lynn Fischer. The Court has been advised by its technical staff that this results from the manner in which the software which prepares the foregoing notice is programmed. The designation is picked up from the right-hand representation column of the court’s docket, and in a pro se case whichever joint debtor is listed first – in this case David Vincent Fischer – the notice designation as to the debtor’s attorney will state the debtor himself/herself, thus apparently intending to indicate that the debtor is pro se. Mrs. Fischer is correct, however: the designation creates confusion in the Notice. However, the Court cannot reissue the notices, but will by this order clarify the matter addressed by Kissandra Fischer’s motion.

IT IS ORDERED David Vincent Fischer shall not be deemed in any manner to be an attorney for, or otherwise acting on behalf of, Kissandra Lynn Fischer in this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall make certain that all notices and other documents served upon the debtors in this case shall be separately sent to David Vincent Fischer and Kissandra Lynn Fischer at the addresses respectively designated in the caption of the case for each other them.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk shall provide a copy of this order to all creditors, parties in interest, the Chapter 7 Trustee, the United States Trustee, and each of the debtors.

Dated at Hammond, Indiana on November 18, 2005.
