ORDER FOR HEARING ON MOTION FILED BY MARY E. KRAUSE

On November 29, 2005, Mary E. Krause, by counsel, filed a Motion for Modification of Automatic Stay. This motion has generated two administrative orders from the Court, and an incredible waste of the Court's time with respect to a matter which could have been easily and efficiently presented to the Court if counsel for the movant had merely read the Court's Local Rules, or alternatively, had simply followed the directions of the Court's orders. The first order was entered on November 30, 2005, noting to counsel that a $150.00 filing fee was required with respect to the motion. Counsel has now paid the filing fee. The second order was entered on November 30, 2005, and pointed out that the movant's counsel had not complied with the requirements of N.D.Ind.L.B.R. B-2002-2 with respect to the motion. As of December 18, 2005, there has been no compliance with this administrative order. That order stated that the Court would take no action with respect to the motion until there had been compliance with the terms of the order.

The Court deems the most efficient course to be to set a hearing on the motion.

IT IS ORDERED that a hearing will be held on January 13, 2006, at 11:00 A.M. with respect to the Motion for Modification of Automatic Stay filed by Mary E. Krause on November 29, 2005.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for the movant shall be prepared to show cause at the hearing as to why the motion should not be denied outright for failure to comply with the Court's rules and/or why sanctions should not be imposed upon him for failure to follow the directives of orders of the Court.

Dated at Hammond, Indiana on December 21, 2005.
