

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA

IN RE:

MOTIONS FOR ADMISSION PRO HAC VICE

AMENDED GENERAL ORDER 2000-01

In order to better implement the requirements of N.D.Ind.L.R. 83.5(c)(2), which, pursuant to N.D.Ind.L.B.R. B-9010.1(c), apply to proceedings in this bankruptcy court, the following procedures shall apply to motions to appear pro hac vice:

1. The court will not consider or act upon any motion to appear pro hac vice unless, in addition to complying with any other requirements that may govern admission pro hac vice, the motion is accompanied by:

- a. A check payable to the “Clerk, United States District Court” in the amount required by N.D.Ind.L.R. 83.5(c)(2), “which is one-half of the fee required for admission to the bar of the [United States District Court for the Northern District of Indiana],” and
- b. A proposed form of order granting the motion to appear.

2. If the motion to appear pro hac vice is granted, the clerk of the bankruptcy court shall forward movant’s check to the clerk of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Indiana along with a copy of the order granting the motion. If the motion to appear pro hac vice is denied, the clerk of the bankruptcy court shall return the check to the movant along with a copy of the order denying the motion.

3. The court may refuse to consider or act upon any request for relief (other than a motion to appear pro hac vice) filed by any attorney who, pursuant to N.D.Ind.L.R. 83.5(c), is required to obtain leave to appear and has failed to do so.
