do so within seven (7) days of the date the motion was filed will be deemed to be a waiver of any time limits associated with ruling on the motion, including the time limits set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 362(e).

(e) The appropriate version of LBF-3 may also be adapted for use in those instances, not specifically covered by this rule, where the court directs that particular relief may be granted without a hearing following the expiration of notice to creditors. In those situations, in addition to complying with the other requirements of this rule, the notice shall be accompanied by a copy of the court's order authorizing notice to creditors and establishing the deadline for filing objections.

Commentary

Certain motions and applications can be granted after notice and the opportunity for a hearing. This Rule standardizes the practice and procedure for dealing with these motions. Paragraph (a) identifies the applications and motions to which this Rule applies. Paragraph (b) identifies the minimum amount of time between the date of service of the notice and the last day for objecting to the relief requested. Paragraph (c) governs the form of notice. Compliance with this paragraph is mandatory. Because the party filing a motion is responsible for preparing and serving the notice to creditors, the failure to use a complete and proper form of notice may result in the court's refusal to rule on the motion until proper notice has been sent.

Paragraph (a)(24) has been amended to clarify its scope, by changing the phrase "nunc pro tunc" to the word "retroactively." The term "nunc pro tunc" has a precise meaning (See In re IFC Credit Corporation, 663 F.3d 315, 317-18 (7th Cir. 2011)), which relates to correcting a record to properly document an actual previous event, rather than to relate something back when the event did not previously occur. The notice requirement refers to a circumstance in which a professional has in fact rendered services or established a professional relationship prior to being approved as a professional by the court - the professional now seeks to authorize employment retroactively to the date upon which services were first performed or the professional relationship arose.

Paragraph (b) does not specify which creditors and parties in interest are entitled to receive notice. Not all types of relief require notice to all creditors. You should consult the Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules and General Orders to determine which creditors and parties in interest are entitled to receive notice of a particular type of motion.

Local Forms LBF-3a and LBF-3b may be used to comply with paragraph (c) of the Rule. Form 3a is used if you intend to summarize the grounds for the motion; Form 3b is used if a copy of the motion or application is attached to the notice. In briefly stating the specific remedy or relief you want the court to grant, it is important to be both brief and specific. A Motion for Abandonment, for example, would be the name of the motion; the relief requested by the movant, briefly summarized, would be to abandon from the bankruptcy estate the debtor's 1995 Ford Tempo automobile. Or, for example, if the motion is to modify a confirmed Chapter 13 Plan, the relief requested might be to extend the plan payments from 36 months to 60 months. The requested relief should be stated with sufficient particularity in the notice that the reader can determine, from this statement alone, what it is that the movant is asking the court to do. Would your client be satisfied if the court granted the relief you request in this part of the notice, as worded? If the relief you mention is generic or ambiguous, an order granting that relief in those terms might be ineffectual. Specificity is needed, but brevity is also required. The statement of relief sought should be concise, clear, and informative.

If you will not be attaching the actual motion to the notice, then Form 3a should be used. In addition to the brief, particular statement of the relief you are asking the court to grant, you should provide a summary of the grounds for the motion. Here you should state, in summary form, the factual basis for seeking the relief. The statement of the grounds of the motion should not be argumentative; nor should it be generic. The purpose is to inform the creditor body of the essential facts supporting your motion or application.

Paragraph (d) of the Rule is a reminder that the moving party is responsible for preparing the notice to creditors, making certain it is in proper form, and serving the notice on the proper parties. In certain cases, parties who must receive the notice include all creditors and parties in interest; in other circumstances, only particular creditors or parties are required to be served with the notice. The identity of the entities required to be served is beyond the scope of this Rule; the identity of parties required to be served is determined by the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code itself, applicable rules of bankruptcy procedure, the local rules of this court, or by any order of this court.

Paragraph (e) of the Rule provides for certain adaptations of the forms, in the event of circumstances not anticipated by the Rule for example, where the court independently orders notice to creditors with respect to motions, applications or relief, not specifically mentioned in paragraph (a) of the Rule.
